

Description

FULLTEC IMPULSE

Fulltec Impulse Corn and Fulltec Impulse Soy brings the best combination of 4 different products that will be responsible for keeping the maximum yield potential with your crops. It is the highest concentration of available plant nutrients that not only promotes vigorous plant growth but also helps to keep major stresses away from your plants.

Main Benefits:

Nutrient Availability

The EDTA present in the Impulse formulation gives the nutrients an organic coating, making their absorption by the leaves easy.

Yield Saver

Fulltec Impulse aids in the prevention of losing yield potential by lack of nutrition or stress to the plants as well as stocks nutrients in the plant for further aid.

All-in-one

Fulltec Impulse provides more benefits in just one box than a pile of products do separately.

Corn:

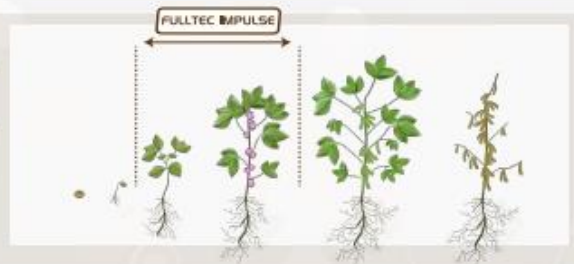

N P K Mo Co Cu Mn B S Zn
